

1. Sender encodes the message using the agreed-upon private key.

3. Recipient decodes the message using the same private key.