

Who can get their vaccine now?

Who will get their vaccine soon?

WINTER

- Health care personnel
- Long-term care residents
- Pre-kindergarten-12 grade educators and child care
- People age 65 years and older

EARLY SPRING

- People with specific high-risk health conditions:
 - Sickle cell disease,
 - Down Syndrome,
 - active cancer treatment,
 - immunocompromised from organ transplant, oxygen-dependent chronic lung and heart conditions (COPD and CHF)
- Targeted essential workers
 - Food processing plant workers

LATE SPRING

- People 45-64 with one or more high-risk medical conditions
- People 16-44 with two or more high-risk medical conditions
- Essential frontline workers
 - Agricultural, additional child care workers not previously eligible, correctional settings, first responders, food production, food retail, food service, manufacturing, public transit, U.S. Postal Service workers
- People age 50 years and over in multi-generational housing

SUMMER

- People age 16 years and over with any underlying medical condition
- Age 50-64 (regardless of health condition)
- All other essential workers
 - Transportation and logistics, finance, housing/shelter construction,
 - IT/communications, energy, media, legal, public safety, water and wastewater
- General public

Underlying medical conditions as identified by CDC that are known to increase the risk of severe illness from COVID-19:

Cancer	Obesity - body mass index (BMI) greater than 30 kg/m ²
Chronic kidney disease	Pregnancy
COPD (chronic obstructive pulmonary disease)	Sickle cell disease
Down Syndrome	Type 2 diabetes
Heart conditions , such as heart failure, coronary artery disease, or cardiomyopathies
Immunocompromised state (weakened immune system) solid organ transplant, HIV, bone marrow disease, chronic steroids for more than 30 days, immunodeficiency disease, or taking immunosuppressive medications

ROLL UP YOUR SLEEVES, MINNESOTA