

THINK:

Internet is hardware

- consists of computers around the world and the communications links that connect them

World Wide Web is software

- consists of Web pages, images, sound files, etc., and the software that stores and retrieves these files