

1. Start with a recording of the speech in Chinese.

2. A translator takes the recording, translates it in its entirety, and produces a version in English.

3. Multiple listeners may play the English translation as many times as desired.